GxP Systems Expands Sales Team

Cork, Ireland – Monday, April 4, 2011: GxP Systems has appointed Mark Brassil as a Business Development Manager to exploit the continued growth in customer activity in the Biotech, Medical Device, Pharmaceutical markets.

"Mark is a very experienced engineer and an accomplished relationship builder," said Breffni Allen Director of Sales and Marketing for GxP Systems. "His previous experience in working directly with our multinational customers as a project validation engineer will be a key asset for us as we grow and I wish him the very best of success in this new role with the sales team."

Mark joined GxP Systems in 2006 as a validation engineer and has worked with the company at various customer sites in Ireland. He will join the existing sales and marketing team to target new and existing customers in regulated industries.

"I am excited to get this opportunity to further my career and to direct my energies to work with new customers," added Mark Brassil. "GxP Systems is a great place to work because we have such a diverse range of customers across all markets and every day there is something new to do as an engineer and sales guy."
